TESTIMONIALS

TODD VASSILEV, Brown University

"Having immigrated to the United States fifteen years ago, I never foresaw attending an Ivy League university as I struggled to navigate through the American education system. This all changed the summer before my senior year of high school when I got started with Students of Strength. From the very beginning, SOS provided me with an advisor, mentor, and friend who both guided and empowered me as an individual. Without their influence, I would not be where I stand today."

GRETTA IRICHI, Parent

"The academic coaches of Students of Strength are always on time, courteous, respectful and totally knowledgeable. Our son has no problems with connecting with the academic coaches and accomplishing his goals. The scheduling is always flexible and stress-free for our family. Our son had another successful year with the help of Students of Strength. As a mother I feel helpless when I am unable to explain math problems, but after his sessions he was able to understand the lessons with no problems in class. Thanks to Students of Strength for being the strength we needed for our son to be successful."

ANURUDRAN ASHRI, Harvard University

"Students of Strength was an amazing help during my college application process. My tutor was very personable, and he took the time to understand my profile and background to help me present myself in the best way possible... SOS equipped me with the tools I needed to take on the college application process, and unfortunately this is a luxury that all students don't have. I have always done my best to help others in need, and after my experience with Students of Strength, I knew I had to share this resource with students everywhere. I connected SOS to my high school and other organizations in my hometown in Texas, and have used this resource as a way to promote the change I want to see in the world. We need to empower our students to reach their goals, and Students of Strength does exactly that."

BRITTNEY TRIBBLE, Parent

"Enrolling my children in Students of Strength was one of the best decisions I could have made. Education has always been a priority in our household, so when I could no longer help my kids with their homework alone, I desperately sought reliable back up. Within no time our kids were connected with highly intelligent, affordable tutors. SOS academic coaches helped my kids with homework, prepared them for the SAT, and even helped with their college applications! My daughter was accepted into her dream school and our son is on track to follow in her footsteps. We recommended SOS to nearly a dozen other families and their kids experienced similar results – better test scores and a higher GPA. I am grateful for what Students of Strength gave to me and my children and believe every parent should take advantage of this unique privilege. Get your student the resources they need today! SOS will help."
